

A blue-toned illustration at the top of the page shows a group of diverse students. On the left, a boy with curly hair and a girl with glasses are looking at a globe. In the center, a dog is sitting. On the right, a girl is in a wheelchair, and another student is partially visible. The title 'Special Music Education' is written in white over a dark blue banner.

Special Music Education

Table of Contents

Week 1: (Dis)ability

Before you begin Week 1: Crip Camp Reflections

Introduction to (Dis)ability

(Dis)ability Studies and the DisCrit Movement

The History of Special Education

Special Education Laws

Conclusion and References

Week 1 Assignment

Week 1 Knowledge Check

Week 2: IDEA

Before you begin Week 2: Including Samuel

IDEA and The Six Core Principles

IDEA in the Music Classroom: IDEA 1 & 2

IDEA in the Music Classroom: IDEA 3 & 4

IDEA in the Music Classroom: IDEA 5 & 6

Models of (Dis)ability

Conclusion and References

Week 2 Assignment

Week 2 Knowledge Check

Week 3: Differentiated Instruction (DI) and Strength-Based Pedagogy (SBP)

Differentiated Instruction

Differentiated Instruction (Continued)

Strength-Based Pedagogy

Strength-Based Pedagogy (Continued)

Conclusion and References

Week 3 Assignment: SBP

Week 3 Knowledge Check

A blue-toned illustration at the top of the page shows a group of diverse students. On the left, a boy with curly hair and a girl with glasses are looking at a globe. In the center, a dog is visible. On the right, a student in a wheelchair is shown. The title 'Special Music Education' is written in large white letters across the middle of this illustration.

Special Music Education

Week 4: Neurodiversity and Specific Learning (Dis)abilities (SLD)

Neurodiversity

Specific Learning (Dis)abilities

Specific Learning (Dis)abilities (Continued)

Dyslexia and Dyscalculia

Dysgraphia and Dyspraxia

Conclusion and References

Week 4 Discussion: Specific Learning (Dis)abilities

Week 4 Knowledge Check

Week 5: Neurodiversity: ADHD, Universal Design for Learning (UDL)

Neurodiversity: Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD)

Strength-Based Approaches for ADHD

Strength-Based Approaches for ADHD (Continued)

Universal Design for Learning (UDL)

Thinking Beyond UDL

Conclusion and References

Week 5 Assignment

Week 5 Knowledge Check

Week 6: Neurodiversity: Autism Spectrum Disorder (ASD); The Syndromes

Autism Spectrum Disorder (ASD)

Autism Spectrum Disorder (ASD) (Continued)

Strength-Based Approaches for ASD

The Non-Speaking Student with ASD

Common Syndromes in the Music Classroom

Conclusion and References

Week 6 Assignment

Week 6 Knowledge Check

A blue-toned illustration at the top of the page shows a group of diverse students. On the left, a boy with curly hair and a girl with glasses are looking at a globe. In the center, a dog is sitting. On the right, a girl is in a wheelchair, and another student is partially visible. The title 'Special Music Education' is written in white over a dark blue banner.

Special Music Education

Week 7: Intellectual (Dis)ability; Individualized Education Program (IEP)

What is Intellectual (Dis)ability?
Teaching Students with Intellectual (Dis)abilities
Self-Contained Settings vs Inclusive Music Settings
The Individualized Education Program (IEP)
The Individualized Education Program (IEP) (Continued)
Conclusion and References
Week 7 Assignment
Week 7 Knowledge Check

Week 8: Emotional and Behavioral Disorders (EBD)

Classroom Management Reframed
Understanding Emotional and Behavioral Disorders
Behavior Systems, Rewards, and the Hidden Curriculum
Building Trust with EBD Students
UDL for EBD
Conclusion and References
Week 8 Assignment
Week 8 Knowledge Check

Week 9: Communication Disorders and Deaf/Hard-of-Hearing

Communication Disorders
Deaf, Hard-of-Hearing, and Hearing Loss
The Audiogram and The Speech Banana
Cochlear Implants and Hearing Aids
Conclusion and References
Week 9 Assignment
Week 9 Knowledge Check

Week 10: Blindness/Low Vision; Dream UDL Classroom Project

Blindness and Low Vision
Braille
Introducing Your Dream UDL Classroom
UDL Lesson Plan in Action
UDL Curriculum
UDL Classroom Project

A blue-toned illustration at the top of the page shows a group of diverse students. On the left, a boy is thinking, and another boy is reading. In the center, a dog is visible. On the right, a girl is in a wheelchair. The title 'Special Music Education' is written in white over a dark blue banner.

Special Music Education

Conclusion and References
Week 10 Assignment
Week 10 Knowledge Check

Week 11: Physical (Dis)abilities

Common Physical (Dis)abilities
The Henry Viscardi School
Teaching Children with Physical (Dis)abilities
Adapted Instruments and Materials
Physical (Dis)abilities Perspective
Conclusion and References
Week 11 Assignment
Week 11 Knowledge Check

Week 12: Assistive Music Technology; Gifted Students

Assistive Music Technology
Assistive Music Technology (Continued)
Gifted Students
Gifted Students: Shane
Conclusion and References
Week 12 Assignment
Week 12 Knowledge Check

Week 13: Course Conclusion; UDL Dream Classroom Preparation

Course Conclusion
UDL Dream Classroom Preparation

Week 14 and Week 15: UDL Dream Classroom - Final Presentations

UDL Dream Classroom - Final Presentation